PROJECT TRANSFORMATION

Sunday, July 24th, Tiffany Jones from Project Transformation will be speaking at both services. Project Transformation, is an 8 week summer day camp experience focusing on literacy. Longstreet UMC located on Airways Blvd. and Centenary UMC located on McLemore St. in Memphis are serving as host sites for 140 children. All programming is planned and led by a team of specially recruited college interns. Our church is a partner church to this effort by providing a stipend for living expenses for Tiffany. She is a junior at High Point University in NC majoring in Religion and Nonprofit Leadership and this is her third summer serving with PT. Tiffany is the House Pastor to all the interns in Memphis. She is responsible for their worship, Bible study and faith development while they are serving this summer.
